1812 a novel The War of 1812 is a period of American history that seems to be skipped over. In history books it is mentioned but it seems to rarely take up more than a page. After I read David Nevin's Treason, I found out that he had also written this book. The subject matter to me was interesting, and overall I thought the book was very good.

1812 a novel Much like the French and Indian War, the War of 1812 is yet another forgotten and overlooked war. As a result, there aren't as many books on this war as there are on the American Revolution or the Civil War. The handful of the books that do exist are great but there are also many bad or mediocre books too. This can make it hard to figure out which books to read.
