main street by sinclair lewis fiction classics Sinclair Lewis's Main Street, published in 1920, was not expected to be a commercial success. Lewis felt it would sell 10,000 copies, and his publisher predicted a run of 20,000 would be adequate. In the first six months of 1921, it sold 180,000 copies. The novel is set in Gopher Prairie, roughly based on Sauk Centre, Minnesota, Lewis's hometown.

main street by sinclair lewis fiction classics A few words about book author. But it was not until his sixth novel, Main Street (1920), that he won recognition as an important American novelist, the first to challenge the myth of the happy quintessentially American small town. His major works are Babbitt (1922), Arrowsmith (1925), which won a Pulitzer Prize that Lewis refused to accept,...
