the hand by jerry sohl science fiction adventure fantasy The Hand by Colette He had fallen asleep on his young wife's shoulder, and she proudly bore the weight of the man's head, blond, ruddy-complexioned, eyes closed. He had slipped his big arm under the small of her slim, adolescent back, and his strong hand lay on the sheet next to the young woman's right elbow.

the hand by jerry sohl science fiction adventure fantasy When Jerry picked he usually kept his index finger tucked back and out of the way. He still used his index finger to pick, just not constantly. Other than that, when picking he used all his right-hand fingers and thumb. Jerry didn't anchor his pinky on the pickguard common practice in fingerstyle guitar.
